Impressionism - the beginning of modern art - About France

Impressionism. The term 'Impressionist' was first used as an insult in response to an exhibition of new paintings in Paris in 1874. A diverse group of painters, rejected by the art establishment, defiantly set up their own exhibition. They included Monet, Renoir, Pissarro and Degas.

Guide to Impressionism | Paintings by Monet, Degas and

Impressionism is a style of painting that emerged in the mid to late 1800s and emphasizes an artist's immediate impression of a moment or scene, usually communicated through the use of light and its reflection, short brushstrokes, and separation of colors. Impressionist painters often used modern life as their subject matter and painted quickly and freely.
