In historical contexts, New Imperialism characterizes a period of colonial expansion by European powers, the United States, and Japan during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The period featured an unprecedented pursuit of overseas territorial acquisitions. At the time, states focused on building their empires with new technological advances and developments, making their territory ...

Precursors. The dream of artificial intelligence was first thought of in Indian philosophies like those of Charvaka, a famous philosophy tradition dating back to 1500 BCE and surviving documents around 600 BCE. McCorduck (2004) writes "artificial intelligence in one form or another is an idea that has pervaded intellectual history, a dream in urgent need of being realized," expressed in ...

(This is the second of a two-part series. In the first part I argued that morality is best conceived as a socially constructed reality.). Part II: The Practice of Morality. When we recognize the socially constructed status of moral rules, responsibilities, obligations, prohibitions and the like we may find ourselves in a bit of a quandary: what to do with our new understanding.
